Part B for April 1938

SUBJECT.

Inclusion of the Special Allowance of Rs. 100/- per annum ~~is~~ granted to Mr. E. E.
Hendy, Director of Public Instruction, in the calculation of his leave allowances.

Serial
No.

Letter No. 422/P.S./37-38 dated 10th March 1938 from the Director of Public Instruction, requesting in the circumstances, explained that the Spl. Allowance of Rs. 150/- sanctioned to him may be treated as one counting for calculating his leave allowances.

Submitted.

T " The intention of Govt. in granting a special allowance of Rs. 150/- per. to the European Professors in the year 1925, was to treat the allowance as a Personal* allowance. It was, therefore, treated for purposes of calculating leave allowance, European Family Remittance and pension as part of an officer's substantive pay.

V " S Mr Mc Alpine when he was appointed as Dir. of Public Instruction was granted a special* allowance of Rs. 150/- in addition to his pay of Rs. 1400/- the maximum pay of his grade. He now wants this Spl. allowance to be treated as a part of his substantive pay for purposes of calculating his leave allowances.

Unless this special allowance is treated as Personal Allowance it cannot be taken into account when calculating his leave allowance. In case it is treated as P.A., it also counts for purposes of travelling allowance, European Family Remittance and Pension. As he is drawing a pay which alone places him among first class officers, for purposes of travelling allowances, the treating of his spl. allowance as Personal allowance will not in any way enable him to draw travelling allowance at the rates higher than what he is now drawing. Again, as his substantive pay is more than Rs 1000/- no question of counting the allowance for pension arises. As regards family remittance, its addition to his salary will, however, give him the benefit of contributing something more than what he is now making. But even in this case too a maximum limit is fixed Art 53(A) 7 M.C.A.C.

 i.e. Rs 15,000 per annum. There is no information there on this point.

It is, therefore, submitted that in case his special allowance is treated as Personal allowance, it will only enable ^{him} to draw ~~higher~~ higher rate of leave allowances than what he is otherwise entitled to.

 Done (Encl Secy) This is the purpose for which he wants it to be declared as a personal allowance.

The all^d is part of the officer's substantive pay in fact. It may be treated as such for leave allowances.

CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Mr. Venkatesa Iyengar,

When I was appointed Director of Public Instruction, Government were pleased to appoint me on Rs.1,400, the maximum of the Director's scale, plus a special allowance of Rs.150/- per mensem. I have recently been discussing with my Financial Assistant the question of my pay during the period of leave, for which I have recently applied. The point at issue is the special allowance of Rs.150/-. In 1925 Government were pleased to sanction to the European Professors of the Mysore University a special allowance of Rs.150/- which was to be absorbed, if their present emoluments were increased. I attach for ready reference a copy of the Government letter in question. In explanation of this order, Government issued a ruling to the Comptroller stating that this special allowance should be included in the calculation of average salary or half average salary payable to an officer on privilege leave and during furlough, etc. I also attach a copy of this letter for easy reference.

At the time when the question of my appointment as Director of Public Instruction was under discussion, I had a talk with the First Member of Council regarding the question of emoluments. I pointed out that as the Principal of the Central College, I had been in what I could only regard as ^a ~~an~~ not very satisfactory position where leave pay was concerned. A part of my salary was made up of a free house, for which I got no value when on furlough, and then in addition, Government ruled that ~~the~~ duty allowances were not to be calculated in leave pay. As I pointed out, this meant that, although I had a permanent lien on the post of the Principal of the Central College, I became in actual point of pay ~~as~~ a Professor, if ever I went on leave. I explained to the First Member of Council that I did not mind what my allowance as Director of Public Instruction was called, provided it was not called duty allowance, and that it was available when I went on leave. My Financial Assistant is of the opinion, with which I agree, that the fact that my special allowance which was absorbable in the University has been renewed on my appointment as Director of Public Instruction implies that it still continues to be governed by the same conditions as were laid down by Government in December 1925. He states, however, that it would be desirable to have the matter made clear by a Government letter in order that there may be no difficulties about drawing my salary while I am on leave.

Yours sincerely,

P. M. A. Iyengar
